

The Night

A Poem written by Chelsea & Chen, G.11 Literature Class

In the midst of the night,
Gallop a horse, driven by a knight.
Into the woods he goes,
In search of his foes.

In the midst of the night,
A maiden braids her hair tight.
Waiting for true place,
She releases her snow-white dove.

In the midst of the night,
A witch laughs with all her might.
Stirring the venomous potion in the pot,
She smiles not.

In the midst of the night,
The knight and the maiden fight.
The witch poisons the night,
And strikes the Earth with fright.

The Noisy Frogs

By Aoey, Onnie, Hana, and Gun

Grade 2

The noisy frogs hop on the log
The noisy frogs scare the dog,
They jump in the cold water,
And see the swimming turtle.

Famous Christmas Quotes by C. S. Lewis

"Once in our world
a stable had something in it that was bigger than our whole world."

"The birth of Christ is the central event in the history of the earth—the very thing the whole story has been about."

Adventist International Mission School (AIMS)

195 Moo3, Muaklek, Saraburi, Thailand 18180

Phone/Fax: +66 3 672 0675

Editorial

Tis The Season

Edgar Walemba, Assistant Editor

The months of November and December were a hectic and exciting time of the school year. It consisted of the Annual Christmas Program and Quarterly Exam Week. The students and teachers took time out of their busy schedules to practice their respective performances. Though it was a thrilling experience, the students often got tired from practicing for long periods or frustrated if the practices were not going well. The students and teacher had to also prepare for exams coming up right after the program.

Besides that, I would like to warn my fellow students to be mindful of their health. Many students have been getting sick, and we encourage you to wash your hands and to avoid over-eating unhealthy food. It would be best if you also were mindful about keeping your body safe by being careful when you play and protect yourself from injuries. I hope you have an excellent holiday to refresh yourselves and come back ready from the new year and 2nd semester. Happy Holidays!

Editorial Team

Editor: Joash Naag II

Assistant Editor: Edgar Walemba,
Jadequin Watthanachai

Head Designer: Joash N. Naag II

Reporters: Panuwat Hemthong,
Pongsapak Yopinta

Advisors: Mr. Joy Kuttappan and
Mr. Edan Pedragosa

FOOTPRINTS

The Official Newsletter of Adventist International Mission School

195 Moo3, Muak Lek, Saraburi, Thailand 18180

VOLUME 4 ISSUE 4

NOVEMBER - DECEMBER 2019

AIMS Family Enjoys the Night To Remember

By Chelsea Anthony, Grade 11

Christmas- one of our favorite holidays of the year. A season of celebration, joy, and rest. This year, AIMS decided to continue its annual tradition by hosting a Christmas program for its community. Teacher Malla Mae Villosio Rom, the new music teacher at AIMS, organized the celebration with the assistance of all the other members of the AIMS family.

Teacher Malla Mae and her team decided to theme the program, "A Night to Remember." Christmas time is a remembrance of the love and sacrifice of Jesus when he took the human form to meet us. This theme was made for us to ponder upon the birth of Jesus.

Students, as well as teachers, anxiously awaited this event. They came with many creative ways to illustrate and display this theme. Students became extremely busy as they tried to perfect both their studies and their Christmas presentation.

It was November 27, 2019--the D-Day, and the students were finally ready and built with enough courage to perform their presentations. For a half-day of school, the students began doing the final touch-ups for the program, which was to occur later that evening.

At half-past six, parents and teachers began arriving at the venue- Kiti-Tasanee Auditorium. Students with talents in musical instruments were able to perform in a pre-program before the actual presentation, which began at seven o'clock. Students, in their beautiful and colorful costumes, were then waiting for their turn to perform. After an introduction by the AIMS principal, Mrs. Patricia Foster, the program commenced.

"We don't just teach,
we build character"

"We don't just teach,
we build character"

